Two wonderful places to stay

Cambridge

A world-famous university city: historic colleges, punting on the River Cam, museums, parks and a lively international community.

Our Cambridge host families are spread across the city, close to schools, colleges and bus routes.

Ely

A beautiful, quieter cathedral city less than 20 minutes from Cambridge by train, surrounded by friendly villages.

Ideal for students and groups who want a calmer place to live, with Cambridge close by.

Most homes are 15–50 minutes from school, college or university by bus, bike or on foot.

Safe and supported

Your wellbeing matters to us. From the moment you book until the day you leave, our team is here to help.

Before you arrive

- We send your host's details before you travel, so you can say hello
- Tell us about diet, allergies, pets or smoking and we find the right home
- Airport transfers from Heathrow, Stansted, Gatwick and Luton

Your first days

Your host welcomes you, shows you around and explains the house rules, such as meal times and keys. On your first day they help you find your way to your school, college or university.

If something isn't right

Just contact us. We talk to you and your host and put things right, and we can move you to a different home if needed.

For parents of under-18s

- Your agent, or a parent or guardian, makes the booking
- Every host of an under-18 is DBS-checked
- We follow British Council guidelines
- Our 24/7 emergency line means help is always there, day or night

How to book

1. Tell your agent your dates
   And anything we should know: diet, allergies, pets, interests.
2. We find your home
   We match you carefully with the right host family or room.
3. Your agent confirms your booking
   They are your point of contact before you travel.
4. Meet your host
   We send their details before you travel.
